About HIMSS20: Exhibition

The most exciting week in health information and technology attracts 1,300+ diverse exhibitors—amounting to an exhibit floor of 1.2 million gross square feet. 420 first-time exhibitors—those innovators and startups new to the industry—and 118 international companies participated in HIMSS19. Even more international exhibitors are coming to HIMSS20, prompting the creation of a new Global Pavilion on the exhibit floor. See all specialty pavilions.

Companies are showcasing hundreds of different types of healthcare technology solutions. Those in the highest volume include:

- Privacy and Security
- Interoperability
- Population Health Management
- Health Information Management
- Consumer
- SaaS
- Analytics

The exhibit floor is open Tuesday, March 10 through Thursday, March 12. Search for exhibitors or view all exhibitors.

About HIMSS20: Education

A HIMSS20 full-conference registration gives you access to:

- 350+ compelling general education sessions, including highly vetted, peer-reviewed content eligible for continuing education credit.
- Key policy announcements and related information.
- All keynote (Tuesday, Thursday, Friday) and Views from the Top (Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday) sessions, given by industry luminaries, innovators and distinguished leaders.
- 300+ education sessions on the show floor. Industry experts will speak in specialty pavilion theaters, Lightning Sessions—where no topic is off-limits—and more.

Education session recordings are included with your full registration. Continuing education credit is available for a variety of disciplines.

About HIMSS20: Networking

HIMSS20 offers a multitude of daytime and evening events and 1:1 networking opportunities to connect with the right people to accelerate your professional goals and objectives.

“One week at the HIMSS Global Health Conference provides more networking opportunities than three months practically anywhere else.”— Lygeia Ricciardi, Chief Transformation Officer, Carium
